OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

25X1

Friday - 6 January 1978

✓ 1. [ ] LIAISON Talked with Bob Thompson, White House Congressional Liaison staff, regarding Ambassador Carlucci's nomination being sent to the Hill. I told him Bill Miller, Staff Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, would like to have the nomination submitted as soon as possible and I asked Thompson if it could be sent over before Congress convenes for the second session on 19 January. Thompson said he was sure the nomination could be sent assuming that all FBI checks had been made and Ambassador Carlucci's financial questionnaire had been submitted and reviewed. I told him the Ambassador and Tony Lapham, General Counsel, were working on the financial questionnaire and I presume it would be ready very shortly. In a later conversation, (after talking with Mr. Lapham) I advised Thompson that the questionnaire should be received at the White House and the Select Committee early next week and he informed me that the nomination could go forward as soon as that material was received.

2. [ ] LIAISON At his request, I met with Mike Hershman, Deputy Staff Director, House International Relations Subcommittee on International Organizations. Hershman explained that the Subcommittee would like to resume contacts with us and resume interviews with witnesses now that the Derwinski matter presumably has been resolved by the Justice Department. I said I was not certain this would resolve the matter as far as we were concerned but I would look into it and be back in touch with him. (See Memorandum for the Record.)

3. [ ] LIAISON Talked with Sam Hoskinson, NSC staff, to advise him of the approach we were taking in responding to Chairman Daniel Inouye's (D., Hawaii), Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, questions to us on the Helms' case. I said that with regard to the question about the details of the Director's conversations with the President on this subject, we were indicating that we did not feel it was appropriate for the Director to go beyond what has been said publicly on this subject and were referring Chairman Inouye to the White House. I said this would mean the White House would probably be receiving an inquiry from the Committee and I advised Hoskinson of the Director's discussions with the Chairman on this subject. Hoskinson had no problem with this, in fact, felt it was a good way to resolve the matter and thanked me for alerting him.

6. [ ] wh LIAISON Called Bill Hogan, STAT
Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, to say that the Director could meet with the full Committee for a world wrap-up briefing on 26 January for an all day session with the understanding that he would be excused from noon until 2:00 p.m. because of a prior commitment. This hearing will be held in room 2118 Rayburn House Office Building.

7. [ ] LIAISON Received a call from Mike STAT
Hershman, Deputy Staff Director, House International Relations Subcommittee on International Organizations. Hershman said it was important that he convey a message to me from Chairman Donald M.
Fraser (D., Minn.) as soon as reasonably convenient. I made arrangements to meet Hershman in his office at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow.

8. [ ] LIAISON Talked with Bob Thompson,
White House Liaison staff, to advise him of my plans for scheduling courtesy calls for Ambassador Carlucci on the Hill and to assure that ✓ I was in no way working at cross purposes with the White House staff.
Thompson encouraged me to proceed as I had planned but asked that I provide Frank Moore, Assistant to the President for Legislative Liaison, with periodic reports on these contacts.

9. [ ] LIAISON Received a call from Emily Thurber, Legislative Aide to Senator Alan Cranston (D., Calif.).
Ms. Thurber was calling on behalf of a John Rutherford, a close personal friend of the Senator's, a construction engineer for a Brooklyn museum expedition to Egypt. The object of this expedition is the Thebean Acropolis.
It is known as the Thebean Royal Tomb Project. Rutherford would like to have access to the aerial photography of the Luxor-Thebes. She said they had been in touch with "EARTHSAT" who suggested they contact DIA or CIA for access to U-2 aerial photography. I told Ms. Thurber that I was very skeptical that we could be of any assistance in the matter but I would look into it and be back in touch with her.
